A dissemination seminar has been arranged for 24 June 2011 (Friday) for those who did not join the technical visit and those who wish to re-visit interesting issues that arose during the technical visits. Mr Welie NG of Gammon will take you through local examples of the application of BIM in construction. There will be a lively demonstration of the application of BIM in the delivery of the redevelopment of the 500 Hennessy Road project. Gammon's BIM Centre will be revealed in detail in the seminar as one of the forerunners of the application of BIM in construction, components design, and site operations. There will also be presentations of footage and/or photos specifically taken during the technical visits for this dissemination seminar.
