Speaker

❖ Benny K B Kwok
CPA (Practising), FCA, MRICS, MCIOB

Event Overview

Chartered Surveyors carry out valuation, asset appraisal and property consulting as well as take charge of supervising the daily operation of properties and built facilities which all require the proficiency and experience to understand and analyse the relevant financials relating to those assets, properties and facilities. Budgets, ledgers, projections, final accounts and financial statements are common communication channels amongst owners, clients, contractors, sub-contractors, managers, lawyers, regulators, end-users and other stakeholders. As these financials are full of technicalities and codified messages, those less well trained in the subject may not be able to unlock these messages. This seminar caters for the needs of Chartered Surveyors, and seeks to bridge the gap between accounting, finance and surveying.

About the Speaker

Benny is a reputable forensic accountant and expert witness in litigation support, dispute analysis and fraud investigation, and is also the author of many published titles including Financial Analysis in Hong Kong (2nd Edition) by The Chinese University Press and Forensic Accountancy (2nd Edition) by LexisNexis. Benny has produced more than 100 expert reports and has attended arbitration hearings, disciplinary proceedings as well as trials at the High Court and the District Court in Hong Kong, on civil and criminal cases, as an expert witness to give evidence on accounting, commercial and financial matters. He also served, under the court orders, as the single joint expert in civil proceedings, and sat on the Solicitors' Disciplinary Tribunal and the Obscene Articles Tribunal for 9 years. Besides, he was appointed as the Examiner for the CPA Qualification Programme of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants for 7 years.
